We Invite RSESA Members and supporters to
to attend the RSES International Conference.
Joe and Anita Marchese
Welcome to the City of Champions!

Joe and Anita Marchese
Conference Chairpersons

RECIPE ............... from the Kitchen of Sandy Ralston

STRAWBERRY SCONES

6 Tbsp (3/4 stick) cold butter
Cut into small pieces and return to refrigerator

2 cups flour  Tbsp baking powder
3 Tbsp sugar   ½ tsp salt
2 lightly beaten eggs  1/3 cup heavy cream (milk is okay)
½ to 2/3 cup chopped fresh strawberries.

Combine dry ingredients; add cold butter. Pinch and rub with your fingertips until butter is well distributed (mixture should resemble course meal). Gently stir in eggs and cream (milk) until mixture forms a soft dough. Stir in strawberries. Turn dough out onto a lightly floured work surface and pat into a 1” thick circle. Cut into 8 triangular scones. Brush with 2 Tbsp heavy cream (milk) and sprinkle with 2 Tbsp sugar. Place on parchment lined baking sheet. Bake in preheated oven at 400 degrees until golden brown, 18 to 20 minutes. Serve warm with butter and jam.

We should be rolling in on Sunday, providing we don’t run into any speed bumps!

Hi Folks,
This is my second letter for the Sight Glass for the summer. I hope it helps Karen fill the pages so she won’t have to send out a blank newsletter. Karen’s family is going through a very difficult time and it just adds more stress in her life to have to beg for input from us. Do we want to continue having a Sight Glass? Maybe we should discuss this at the annual conference.
We have had a wonderful summer filled with lots of fun. The Popeye’s Cajun Surf and Turf was a big success. We had lots of fun with family and friends and was thoroughly entertained by Captain Jim Is Magic. His magic show was great and he is a great DJ, including lots of different music. His wife did a beautiful job face painting for the kids and some wild adults. His son performed juggling acts and stilts walking. He also did balloon twisting for all. I am almost finished with the 20 year old quilt. We traced around Vegas and Tyler’s hands on freezer paper so I could cut them out and iron them on quilt, then stitch the outline into the quilt and remove the paper. A few more handprints and I will be finished. My brother won a regional championship shooting pool, so we went with him to Las Vegas to play in the nationals. Did we really need an excuse to go to Vegas? It was lots of fun and boy was it hot. We are still entertaining for Senior Citizens. Tommy goes with us to carry the piano. I love my “roadie”. My sister, Karen, plays the guitar and my brother has joined us a few times to play the bass guitar. My Mom went one time and sung a song with us. She was the hit of the night. Wendy won a “Cajun Bash”, a party for 100 people sponsored by Popeye’s Chicken. We’re having that here on July 27. Company representatives from Atlanta, GA, will be here to set up and take pictures. We’re really excited about it. Food and entertainment, two of our favorite things! We’re looking forward to seeing everyone this fall in Pittsburgh. I hope you all are making plans to be there. The folks there have been working hard to make sure we all have a good conference.
That’s all for now, enjoy the rest of the summer and be safe!

A do-not-miss activity for ladies and men: a Just Ducky tour on Friday, October 25. The duck boat tour leaves right from Station Square and takes about an hour. The duck boats (DUKW) are converted WWII military vehicles. The DUKW was used in amphibious operations throughout the Mediterranean and Pacific, including Operation D-Day in 1944. Once we’re on board, the DUKW will transport us throughout downtown Pittsburgh, then over the bridge to the North Shore area, then drive right into the river for a short boat trip back to Station Square. If you’ve never done this before, make sure you do! It’ll be a fun trip. http://www.justduckytours.com/

An Usborne Book Fair benefitting Children’s Hospital of Pittsburgh will be held in the hotel on Saturday, October 26, from 2:00 until 4:00 p.m. Books that are purchased here will be delivered to Children’s Hospital of Pittsburgh for distribution to the young patients.

Finally, this year’s conference will go out with a BANG – literally! Saturday’s Closing Banquet will include a murder mystery show. Watch for clues while enjoying the drama and excitement of the evening’s events.

Pittsburgh has so much more to offer: Point State Park, which marks the confluence of our three rivers; Macy’s shopping downtown; the Strip District with unique shops and restaurants; Rivers Casino; live theater; and scenic Mount Washington located just above Station Square, accessed by incline. For more information about shops, restaurants and attractions at Station Square, go to http://www.stationsquare.com/. For more information about things to see and do in and around Pittsburgh, go to http://www.visitpittsburgh.com/.

And be sure to find Joe and I, or any other member of the Conference Committee, when you’re here for suggestions on exciting and interesting places to visit. We might even be able to help you get there!

We’re looking forward to welcoming one and all to beautiful Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania – the City of Champions!
We’re excited to welcome everyone to our beautiful city! This year’s conference at the Sheraton at Station Square is a prime location for sightseeing, culture, food, music, relaxation and other enjoyment. Several activities are already planned for the conference week. We’ve listed the websites in case you want to explore on your own before you get here.

A trip to Frank Lloyd Wright’s Fallingwater in the scenic Laurel Highlands of Ligonier, PA is scheduled for Tuesday, October 22. This full day excursion departs from the Sheraton hotel at about 8:00 a.m. and returns around 4:00 p.m. This is sure to be a spectacular day; not only is Fallingwater unique and beautiful, but it is located in a lush wooded area which hopefully will be in all its colorful autumn glory. After the tour, we’ll enjoy a luncheon at Brady’s restaurant arranged by Shelva Hauer. If time permits, we may hop over for a tour of a local glass factory, Smith Glass. http://www.fallingwater.org/

The activity for Wednesday, October 23 is a day of cultural sightseeing which will leave from the hotel around 9:30 am. Our first stop is Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens, a beautiful indoor facility housing 17 distinct botanical experiences allowing you to immerse yourself in one of the world’s greenest public gardens. After spending some time at Phipps, we’ll head over to a Pittsburgh favorite, Gullifty’s Restaurant, for lunch. (For fans of Mr. Rodgers’ Neighborhood, you may recognize the name “Gullifty” from when X the Owl would exclaim “Nifty Gullifty!” Fred Rogers called Pittsburgh home, and you can visit his memorial statue located just across the river if you like.) Save room for dessert – Gullify’s is most famous for its spectacular sweets! We’ll need to do some walking to work off our big lunch, so next we’ll visit the Carnegie Museums of Art and Natural History. You’ll have a few hours for an unguided visit throughout these two adjoining museums. The museums are located in the heart of Pittsburgh’s Oakland section, which houses the main campuses of the University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie-Mellon University, to name a few. If it’s a nice day out, there may be time to walk around the area, perhaps visit the Cathedral of Learning or beautiful Heinz Chapel, both located on the Pitt campus. http://phipps.conservatory.org/; http://www.carnegiemuseums.org/

On Thursday, October 24, from 2:00 until 4:00 p.m., Denise Ziegelbein will host a Pampered Chef show right in our hotel. Proceeds from this show will benefit the Women’s Center and Shelter of Greater Pittsburgh.

Greetings from the Commonwealth of Virginia

The Conference is almost upon us, which means that we’ll be seeing each other soon. Since the last issue of the Sight Glass, I’ve had some interesting experiences. I went to Alaska on a cruise, and it was fun. Mom, Dad, and I went up for a long week, starting off in Seattle, Washington for 2 nights, to visit with my nephew & niece-in-law (I don’t know if that’s an actual term, but it sounded good). While we were there, I found out that I’m going to be a Great Uncle (they’re having a baby, due around the end of November). She came home wearing a shirt that said “Bake at 98.6 degrees for 40 weeks”! We left there on Friday, and caught a shuttle bus up to Vancouver, BC, where we boarded the ship (Royal Caribbean’s Radiance of the Seas). We left the ship in Seward, Alaska, and caught another shuttle bus up to Anchorage, where we flew back to Virginia. It was a fantastic week, and I’d go back again in a heartbeat. Mom & Dad seemed to enjoy the trip, especially with it starting off by finding out that they’re going to be great-grandparents.

Since then, I’ve been to Boston for a week, to attend a training class for work. It was a good class, though the days were long, but I passed. Work is in full swing, and so far (knock on wood), I’m doing pretty good (no worse, but maybe somewhat better). I’m still active in the US Coast Guard Auxiliary and having fun out on the water.

I want to extend an invitation to come on by the Hospitality Room at the Conference. You’ll see a lot of familiar faces there, and hopefully you’ll also see some new ones as well. Whether day or night, we’ll do our best to make you feel welcome. It’s my understanding that Marilyn Roth, CM (past Region 2 Director) will be joining us at the Conference. All who have had the privilege & pleasure of knowing her, can attest that she is a super lady. A short while back, she had to step down as Director, and we’ve been missing her smiling face ever since. Now, she’s back with us.

Ray Clary, CMS, RSESA International Vice President

Cowtown 10200
Fort Worth, Texas

Proud to be members of RSES and the Auxiliary in Region 10. We are proud to help sponsor The Sight Glass.
The Pittsburgh area is going to host the hospitality room during the daytime and the Ray, Bob and Mac hospitality gang will come on duty in the evening. Not sure yet which nights the room will be open but look for the room number when you check in at the hotel. The daytime crew is planning on a lot of goodies and of course, the nighttime crew will have goodies and drinks for all. Oh yes, we also need door prizes to help with the cost of the hospitality room. Come by during the evenings and say "hello" to the current President of the Auxiliary, Gail Paschal. Bring you door prizes to donate, say "hello" to Gail, have a drink or two and then buy some tickets for the door prizes and we all will have a great time!

Mac and I will be driving to the conference and of course, I get to spend two nights at Casinos on the way. That always makes for a great trip. I think we have 8 1/2 hours the first day, about 7 hours the second day and 7 hours the last day. That shouldn't be too bad a drive. I do want to mention to anyone driving in on Sunday as we are going to do, that the Pittsburgh Steelers have a home game that Sunday and traffic could be a little crazy. The hotel recommended coming in during the game and the game starts at about 4:25PM. Maybe that way the traffic won't be as bad.

I again want to thank all of you that attended the hospitality room in Charleston to visit with me. I think all that came had a good time. Wonder if the weather in Pittsburgh will be rainy and cool as the last two years have been at conference?

Mac and I are looking forward to seeing everyone again. The conference means a lot to us and we really enjoy being with our RSES and RSESA friends.

Pat McCarthy
Immediate Past President

Look forward to seeing everyone in Pittsburgh!
President Pat McCarthy called the meeting to order at 9:35 AM. Sgt. at Arms Ray Clary gave the RSESA prayer, led the Pledge of Allegiance and played the Canadian and American National Anthems. Conference Chairlady Mary Lou Waitschies welcomed the attendees. President Pat McCarthy welcomed the RSESA Board, RSESA member and guests.

Sgt. at Arms Ray Clary called the Roll of Officers and Directors. All were present except Immediate Past President Holly Freidman. President McCarthy announced Ceel Hudelson would serve as Parliamentarian for this meeting.

Secretary Barbara Frase presented the minutes of the 2011 General Business Meeting for review, discussion and approval. Motion made and passed to accept them as printed.

Treasurer Denise Ziegelbein presented the Treasurer’s report. The Audit Committee report was given by Diane Smith. They found the books to be in order. Motion made and passed to accept the Treasurer’s and Audit reports as presented.

President McCarthy welcomed first time attendees and asked them to stand and introduce themselves. She then welcomed all Chapter member, delegates and members at large. She also recognized the past RSESA presidents in attendance.

As I am sure everyone has had, we have had a very busy summer, with activities such as camping, weddings, birthdays of grandchildren, parents’ health issues, family reunions and traveling. Sure makes the time fly by. We look forward to seeing many of you and look forward to catching up on your lives.

Best Wishes,

Hi – Where has the Summer gone? Schools are starting, vacations are wrapping up. In less than two months we will be gathering again. Pittsburgh, PA - here we come. Plans have been underway for months and it sounds like we will have a very good conference. This picture was of a few members gathered at the 2012 conference hospitality room.

During the next couple of months you will have an opportunity to help raise funds for our 2013 “Make Life Worthwhile” Fundraiser. You can do this even if you are unable to join us in Pittsburgh. As a Pampered Chef Consultant, I have the opportunity to assist in coordinating this project. You have the opportunity to share this with your friends and family. The Auxiliary is raising funds for The Women’s Center & Shelter Center of Greater Pittsburgh. It is an organization that assists women in domestic abuse situations. For more information about the organization, check out their website. http://www.wcspittsburgh.org/

To qualify as a fundraiser Pampered Chef requires that we have a minimum of $150.00 in sales. When we hit the $600 mark, the contribution is 15% of the sales. When we held this fundraiser at the Conference in 2011 we raised about $200.00. We are hoping to break this record with the help of you and your friends at home.

Starting September 1st, you can go to my website http://www.pamperedchef.biz/ mszigyskitchen - look under the Features section – International RSESA Fundraiser October 2013. This will give you step-by-step instructions on how to place an order. The show will be closed on October 27th. The following week, all orders will be shipped directly to the guest. Any orders that are placed that are for $75.00 or more will qualify for a FREE gift from Pampered Chef. You will have your choice of either our Small Micro-Cooker or our Large Micro-Cooker.

If you should have any questions in this process, or do not have access to the Internet but are interested in helping, please feel free to give me a call on my cell: 573-690-0881 or send me an email via my pampered chef email mszigy@gmail.com.

Sight Glass Editor Karen Krepcik gave her report. She was commended on the excellent job she does. Gail has talked her into one more year. She would appreciate receiving articles early so she can get them in for printing on time. Her daughter in law remains very ill and assisting in her care requires a great deal of time. Please be patient as she tries to complete the Sight Glass on time.

The Make Life Worthwhile Award for Region was awarded to Region 9 Midwest Auxiliary for their gift to Ronald McDonald House. The Auxiliary salutes you and your $25 check will help you continue your good works.

Special recognition was given to 25 year members Cleta Newton, Amarillo Chapter and Sandra McKendall, Redstick Chapter. Their Certificates and pins will be delivered by President McCarthy. There were no 50 year members this year.

President McCarthy asked for a moment of silence for those we lost this past year. Merle Lippert and Millard Thigpen were mentioned.

Unfinished business- None.

New Business- Motions were made and passed for donations to Happy Wheels (our charity for this year) and Mid-Southeast Auxiliary for the Hospitality Room. A thank you to them for a job well done.

The nominating committee presented the proposed slate. Nominations were requested and received from the floor. The proposed slate was elected by acclamation.
